

International Perspectives on Fiscal Federalism

The Basque Tax System

Open symposium

University of Nevada, Reno
Reno, April 3-4 2019

April 3

Juan Jose Ibarretxe

“The Basque Experience: Constructing Sustainable Human Development”

Breakfast 8:00-10:30am

Programs for the National Security Forum

Sands Regency Hotel - 345 N Arlington Ave, Reno, NV

www.nationalsecurityforum.org

Time	April 3. On campus. MIKC Basque Conference Room (MIKC 305)	Time	April 4. On campus. MIKC Rotunda
8:00 10:30	National Security Forum Juan J. Ibarretxe	10:15	Presentation Dean of the College of Business Greg Mosier Dean of the College of Liberal Arts Debra Modellmog
11:00 11:30	Presentation Xabier Irujo Maite Asensio Gemma Martínez	10:30 11:15	Tax Systems in the US and the Basque Country: A Comparative Approach Gemma Martínez
11:30 12:15	Economic Theories of Fiscal Federalism: USA and Basque Country Nieves Pereda	11:15 12:00	Tax Harmonization in the United States compared to the European Union and the Basque Country Mikel Amuriza
12:15 13:00	The Impact of the Basque Economic Agreement on its Community Economic Development Sofia Arana	12:00 12:45	The Basque and Swiss Fiscal Systems Building Processes as a Source of Lessons for the European Integration Process Mikel Erkoreka
13:00 14:30	Lunch	13:00 14:30	Lunch
14:30 15:15	A Comparison between Wealth Transfer Taxes in the Basque Autonomous Community and the Unites States Aitziber Etxebarria	14:30 15:15	Last Session. Conversation with Juan J. Ibarretxe
15:15 16:00	Federalism and the Cities of the 21st Century Roberto Bernales	15:15 15:30	Closure Aitor Soloeta
16:00 17:00	Round table		